

Gun Owners of South Carolina

Bylaws

ARTICLE I - NAME

The official name of this organization will be the Gun Owners of South Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the “Association”. This is a nonprofit organization incorporated in the State of South Carolina and affiliated with the National Rifle Association of America.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

The primary purpose of the Association is to provide the citizens of this state with educational endeavors in the proper use of firearms through qualified instruction in all aspects of the shooting sports, open forums, organization of local clubs, and to promote and support the legitimate ownership and use of firearms and those activities as provided under the laws of the State of South Carolina and to identify and maintain communication with the individuals and organizations interested in promoting the purposes of the Association.

More specifically, these purposes shall include, but are not limited to the following objectives:

1. The protection and defense of the constitutional right of the individual American citizen to acquire, transport, possess, carry, and transfer ownership of firearms, in order that the people may exercise their right to self preservation and defense of family, person and property, as well as defend the Nation and the individual liberty of its citizens.
2. To promote the use of safe handling of firearms and good marksmanship of firearms, both as a sport and as a fundamental aspect of national defense.
3. The promotion of organized competitive firearm shooting among the residents of the State of South Carolina.

4. To encourage the acceptance of marksmanship as a major competitive sport in the states publicly and privately endowed school systems, at all levels.
5. To support the objectives and purposes of the National Rifle Association of America (NRA) as defined in the NRA Bylaws and the NRA State Association Officers' Handbook.
6. Supporting the Civilian Marksmanship Program and encouraging member clubs to enroll and participate in that program.
7. Promoting the highest degree of sportsmanship and good fellowship among membership of the GOSC, and preventing the occurrence or tolerance of unsportsmanlike conduct.
8. Supporting the conservation and wise use of our wildlife and other natural resources, and cooperating with conservation organizations.
9. Supporting public safety, law and order.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 - Classes of Membership

Membership in the Association shall be composed of two classes: (1) Individuals, and (2) Affiliated Organizations. Members and Affiliated Organizations shall pay such dues as may be set by the Board of Directors for the respective classes of membership and shall meet all other requirements of membership as set forth in this Article.

Section 2 - Individual Membership

A. Individual Membership shall be open to all citizens or residents of the United States, who are of good repute, who have never been convicted of a crime of violence, who subscribe to the purposes and objectives of the Association, and who meet the specific requirements for the type of membership for which application is made.

B. Types of Individual Membership include the following:

1. Annual Membership shall be open to any adult meeting the requirements of Section 2(A) who makes application on the prescribed form, pays the required dues, and otherwise meets all criteria for such membership.
2. Junior Membership shall be open to any person who has not yet achieved his/her twenty-first (21st) birthday, and who otherwise meets the qualifications for membership meeting the requirements of Section 2(A). Dues for a Junior Member shall be one half of the dues of an Annual Membership. Such members shall not be eligible to vote or hold office.
3. Non - Resident Annual Membership shall be open to any person who meets the qualifications for membership, except for residency in the State of South Carolina. Such members shall exercise all privileges of membership, except the right to vote and hold office.
4. Life Membership shall be open to any resident of the State of South Carolina who makes application, tenders the required dues and is approved by the Board of Directors of this Association. Life Members will be entitled to exercise all privileges of an Annual Member for life and will enjoy such special recognition and privileges accruing to Life Members as may be determined by the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall make a list of all current Life Members available to all Officers and Directors of the Association upon request.

Section 3 - Club Membership

Club Membership will be open to all organized and operating clubs, associations, schools, colleges, or other nonprofit corporations existing within the State of South Carolina which have ten (10) or more members subscribing to the purposes and objectives of the Association, which make application and tender the required dues, and which are approved for membership by the Board of Directors. Such membership shall be for a period of one calendar year.

A. Types of Club & Organizational Associations

5. Adult:

6. Junior, School, College: Membership is open to any Junior Club, School/College Shooting Teams who have submitted the proper application and dues. The Club, School/College Shooting Team shall have at least one adult advisor/coach.

Section 4 - Rights and Privileges of Membership

- A. Except as otherwise provided in the Bylaws, Annual, Life, Club and Organizational Members will have the right to attend and be heard at all meetings of the Association and exercise such other rights and privileges as may accrue to members of this Association.
- B. Club representative, or his/her designee, will have the right to cast the vote of the Club in all matters which are put to a vote of the membership as provided below.

Section 5 - Voting

Each Annual and Life Member will be entitled to cast one vote on any matter which may come before any open meeting of the Association. Each Club will be entitled to one vote to be cast by an officially designated delegate. The President or Secretary of the Club must certify the delegate to the Association Secretary. All voting will be done in person, and not by proxy. Proxy voting is prohibited. No member of any type who is in arrears on any payments to the Association will be eligible to vote.

Section 6 - Expiration, Suspension and Expulsion

- A. If dues remain unpaid, Membership in the Association shall automatically terminate on expiration date.
- B. A member may be suspended or expelled from membership for cause in the Association by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
- C. No vote on suspension or expulsion of a member may be taken unless the Secretary shall have sent to the accused member the following document: (1) notice of the proposed suspension or expulsion; (2) the charges which are thought to merit such action; and (3) notification of the members right to request a hearing on the charges. These documents shall be sent by first - class mail not less than fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting of the Board of Directors at which the vote on suspension or expulsion will be taken.

If the member does not request a hearing on the charges, he will be deemed to have waived his right to a hearing on the matter and indicated his willingness to abide by the decision of the Board of Directors. If the member requests a hearing, the Board of Directors must convene a hearing within thirty (30) days at which the accused member shall have the right to confront his accusers, examine witnesses, and present evidence bearing on the charges.

The location of the hearing shall be at a site practicable for both the accused and the Board of Directors, as determined by the Board of Directors. At the completion of the hearing, the Board of Directors by majority vote may: (1) affirm the charges and impose a suspension or expulsion; (2) affirm the charges and impose some lesser penalty; or (3) reject the charges.

- D. Charges against a member may be brought by any member of the Association in good standing, and must be made in writing with supporting documents, if any, attached to the written charges. Charges should be submitted to the attention of the Secretary or President of the Association.
- E. Any person who has been suspended by the Association shall not be permitted to hold office or vote until his suspension can be reviewed in accordance with Article III Section 6.

Section 7 - Resignation

A member may resign from the Association by sending his resignation in writing to the Secretary of the Association. In the case of an Affiliated Club Member, a resignation must be in writing accompanied by a resolution of resignation adopted by a majority vote of the Affiliated Club's Board of Directors. Resignation shall not release a member from any financial obligations to the Association nor shall any member be entitled to any refund of dues or fees paid to the Association.

Section 8 - Access to GOSC membership list

The purpose of this section is to protect the legitimate privacy rights of all GOSC members while providing access by members-in-good-standing of GOSC to the GOSC membership list in a manner which complies with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

- A. Any member-in-good-standing of GOSC may review a copy of the GOSC membership list during any meeting of the GOSC Board of Directors, during the GOSC annual meeting, and upon prior request at the office of the GOSC President during normal business hours (9:00am – 5:00pm) at a mutually-convenient date and time agreed to by both the requesting member and the GOSC President. If the member wishes to copy any information regarding any member other than him/herself, the member may do so after signing an Agreement of Non-Disclosure and No Commercial Use as approved by the GOSC Board of Directors.
- B. Any member-in-good-standing of GOSC may submit a request in writing or by e-mail to the GOSC President for a copy of the GOSC membership list. A copy printed on 8 ½ x11 paper will be provided within ten (10) calendar days of receipt by the GOSC President of (1) payment for the reasonable production costs ($0.40 per page) plus the cost of delivery by certified return-receipt-requested first class United States mail sent to the address of the requesting member as shown in the GOSC membership list, and (2) an Agreement of Non-Disclosure and No Commercial Use as approved by the GOSC Board of Directors signed by the requesting member. Payment shall be by check payable to GOSC.
- C. Copies of the GOSC membership list will not be provided in any other form (including but not limited to disc, mailing labels, e-mail attachment or other electronic media) other than that specified in these bylaws. The membership list will be provided in alphabetical order as maintained in the GOSC records; other sorting or formats will not be provided.
- D. No information from the GOSC membership list may be released by the requesting member to any other party who is not also a member-in-good-standing of GOSC.

- E. No information from the GOSC membership list may be used for any commercial purpose or solicitation without the prior written approval of the GOSC Board of Directors.
- F. The requesting member shall be and remain personally responsible and liable for the release of any information from the GOSC membership list received pursuant to his/her request and for any and all costs, losses and damages accruing to any party including but not limited to GOSC resulting from or otherwise attributable to that release.

Gun Owners of South Carolina

AGREEMENT OF NON-DISCLOSURE AND NO COMMERCIAL USE

The requesting member of GOSC whose name and signature appear below having requested a copy of the GOSC membership list hereby agrees to and accepts each and every of the following provisions in consideration for and as a condition for receipt of the requested copy:

1. No information from the membership list regarding any member other than the requesting member may be released to any other party other than another member-in-good-standing of GOSC for any reason and for any purpose, and
2. No information from the membership list may be used for any commercial purpose or solicitation without the prior written approval of the GOSC Board of Directors, and
3. The requesting GOSC member shall be and remain personally responsible and liable for the release of any information from the GOSC membership list received pursuant to his/her request and for any and all costs, losses and damages accruing to any party including but not limited to GOSC resulting from or otherwise attributable to that release.

I have read all of the forgoing, and in consideration for and as a condition for receiving a copy of the GOSC membership list I agree to and accept all of the above provisions.

ARTICLE IV MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Section 1 - Annual Meetings

There shall be an annual meeting held each calendar year. The Association will conduct the annual meeting for the election of Directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The Board of Directors will determine the exact date, time, and place of this meeting. The Secretary will mail the notification by U.S. mail to each member and club in good standing not less than two (2) weeks prior to this meeting, specifying the time, date and place of the meeting.

Section 2 - Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Association may be held at any time, upon the call of the President, a majority of the Board of Directors, or upon petition of ten percent (10%) of the members in good standing of the Association. A Petition by the membership shall state the purpose of any proposed special meeting. Notice of the special meeting shall be mailed to all members by the Secretary to each of the members of the Association postmarked not less than fifteen (15) days before the meeting.

Section 3 - Quorum

At any annual or special meeting, a quorum shall consist of the voting members present.

Section 4 - District Meetings

Each District will hold at least one meeting each year prior to the Association's Annual meeting. At this meeting the election will be held for the District Director. Other meetings may be held to conduct other business as needed. These meetings may be called by the District Director, or by a signed petition of at least ten (10) Association members within that District.

Section 5 - District Organization

Each District shall develop an outline to carry out the necessary business and interest of the members of the Association. Efforts should be made to develop contacts in each county and municipality within the District to ensure communication networks that will carry out the Purpose and Objectives of the Association.

Section 6 - Order of Business - Annual Meeting

- A. Reading of minutes of the previous annual meeting as recorded by the Secretary (or designee).
- B. Roll call of Officers and Directors.
- C. Determination of a quorum.

ARTICLE V - THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 - Composition

- A. The Board of Directors shall consist of the President, Vice President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and the following:

- B. The District Directors elected as provided in this Article by members of the Association who are entitled to vote. Two (2) members from each Congressional District.
- C. One member of each club.
- D. One Director for each position: Legislative Affairs, Women's Affairs, and Public Exhibitions.

Section 2 - Term of Office

- A. The President, Vice - President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected to a one (1) year term.
- B. District Directors must be residents of the district they are representing. They must be nominated by at least two (2) members who reside in that district. The District Directors shall be elected to a two (2) year term. If no nominations are presented the current elected District Director will remain in the position.
- C. The Directors for the Women's Programs, and Public Exhibitions shall be appointed by the Executive Committee on an annual basis.

Section 3 - Powers and Duties

The governing body of the Association shall be the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have overall supervision, control, and direction of the business of the Association, its committees, and publications; shall determine its policies or changes to them; shall actively prosecute its objectives and supervise the disbursement of its funds; and shall establish the dues and fees to be paid by the Association members. The Board may adopt such rules and regulations that it deems necessary and proper to conduct the business of the Association.

Section 4 - Regular Meetings

Upon proper notice being given, the Board of Directors shall meet to transact business of the Association not less than once a year.

Section 5 - Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or by a signed petition of not less than one - third (1/3) of the Board of Directors. The petition shall state the purpose of the special meeting. The President shall determine the date, time and place of the special meetings

Section 6 - Quorum

At all meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

Section 7 - Proxy Voting

All votes at meetings of the Board of Directors shall be cast in person and not by proxy. This Section shall not preclude the use of mail ballots or telephone as defined by these bylaws.

Section 8 - Nomination and Election Procedures

Prior to the Annual Meeting, the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of at least three (3) members present. The Chairman of the Nominating Committee must be a member of the Board of Directors.

It shall be the responsibility of the Nominating Committee to conduct the nominations from the floor during the meeting.

All nominees must be present at the Annual Meeting to be eligible for election, or, if unable to be present, must submit a letter of acceptance of the nomination to the Secretary. All members nominated to be an Officer or Director must be Annual or Life Members of the Association for at least two (2) consecutive years and must be a NRA member. The Nominating Committee shall verify the qualifications of every nominee.

The Chairman shall submit these nominees to the voting membership at the Annual Meeting.

Nominees for the position of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer will be allowed five (5) minutes to speak to the Association members prior to voting.

Officers and Directors shall be elected by a majority vote of those members present who are entitled to vote. Nominees to uncontested vacancies shall be declared elected by acclamation.

Section 9 - Suspension or Removal of Directors

The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, by affirmative vote of two - thirds (2/3) of its members, suspend or remove any Director for cause by following the same procedure to suspend a Member as stated in Article III, Section 6(c).

Section 10 - Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs on the Board of Directors, the President, with the concurrence of a majority of the Board of Directors, shall appoint a Member who shall serve until the next regular election of the Board of Directors.

Section 11. Voting by Mail

When authorized by the President, action taken by a mail ballot of the members of the Board of Directors, in which a majority of the Directors, in writing, are in agreement, will constitute a valid action of the Board if reported at the next regular meeting of such Board.

Section 12 – Electronic or Telephonic Voting

When authorized by the President, action taken by electronic or telephonic ballot of the members of the Board of Directors, in which a majority of Directors are in agreement, will constitute a valid action of the Board if reported at the next regular meeting of such Board.

Section 13 - Compensation of Directors

No Director shall receive any compensation, for duties as a member of the Board of Directors. A Director shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred as a Director on behalf of the Association as authorized or approved by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI – The Executive Committee

Section 1. Composition

The Executive Committee will consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and two (2) members of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Powers and Duties

The Executive Committee may act in place and stead of the Board of Directors between Board meetings on all matters, except those reserved to the Board by these Bylaws, pursuant to delegation of authority to such Committee by the Board of Directors. All actions of the Executive Committee will be reported to the Board for ratification at the next regular meeting of the Board. The Executive Committee may use telephonic means to conduct business of the Association. The Executive Committee shall by two-thirds vote, have the authority to contribute to any Amicus Brief. The Amicus brief should be supported by the various state NRA affiliated associations on any case pending in the U.S. Supreme Court that will affect the preservation of the Second Amendment. This contribution shall not exceed $300 per brief.

Section 3. Call of Meetings

There will be no regularly scheduled meeting of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will meet upon the call of the President, proper notice being given. Proper notice shall be thirty days written notice by U.S. Mail or by electronic or telephonic means. The notice requirement may be shortened if all members of the Executive Committee agree in writing (email) to a shortened period of notice.

Section 4. Quorum

Four members of the Executive Committee will constitute a quorum for the conducting of business.

ARTICLE VII - OFFICERS

Section 1 - Number and Election

The Officers of the Association shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary and a Treasurer. Nomination and election procedure shall be that specified in these Bylaws. Officers must be Annual or Life Members in good standing of the Association, and at least twenty - one (21) years of age. The Board of Directors may establish other appointive offices as it deems proper to conduct the business of the Association.

Section 2 – Powers and Duties

A. President. The President will serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee, and will preside at all meetings thereof and at all meetings of the members. The President will serve as a member, ex - officio, with right to vote, on all committees except the Nominating Committee. The President shall also serve as the Legislative Director and the spokesperson of the Association. In the event the President cannot attend a function, he/she may appoint a designee in his/her absence.

B. Vice President. The Vice President shall perform the duties of President in his/her absence, at his/her request, or in the event of his/her inability or refusal to act. He/She shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him/her by the President.

C. Secretary

The Secretary shall:

1. Attend and keep minutes of all meetings of the Association, the Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee. In the event the Secretary is absent, the committee will appoint a member present to record the minutes and forward to the Secretary in a timely basis.

2. Keep accurate books and records of Association receipts and disbursements.
3. Receive, have in charge, and be responsible for all money, bills, notes, bonds, and like property coming into his/her possession belonging to the Association.
4. Establish and maintain proper accounting standards for the handling of the Association's funds, and shall be responsible for the keeping of the funds in such banks, and other financial institutions and / or investment media as deemed in the best interest of the Association.
5. Deposit all moneys received by the Association at such depositories in the Association's name.
6. Complete all required Association filings and tax forms as may be required.

7. Report on the financial condition of the Association at the Annual Meeting, and at such other times as requested by the President.
8. Serve as Chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee.
9. Perform all duties incident to the office and other duties assigned by the Chairperson or the Board.
10. Retain a Certified Public Accountant to audit the financial accounts and prepare a report to be presented at the annual meeting each year.

At the expiration of his/her term of office, The Treasurer shall promptly deliver to his/her successor all books, money, and other property of the Association in his/her charge, or, in the absence of a successor, he/she shall deliver such properties to the President.

E. Webmaster

The Webmaster shall be selected and appointed by the Executive Committee. The Webmaster shall be reimbursed for approved expenses required to maintain the GOSC website. The Webmaster shall receive approval from the President before placing information on the website.

Section 3 - Vacancies

In case a vacancy shall occur in the office of President, the Vice President shall serve as President for the balance of the term.

In the event of a vacancy in any other office, the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Section 4 - Suspension and Removal

The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, by affirmative vote of two - thirds (2/3) of its members, suspend or remove any Officer for cause, by following the procedure for suspension of a Member as stated in these Bylaws. Suspension or removal from office shall have no effect upon the Officer's status as a member of the Association.

Section 5 - Compensation of Officers

No Officer shall receive any compensation, but all such persons shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred on behalf of the Association, as authorized or approved by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VIII - COMMITTEES

Section 1 - Committees

The President shall appoint the members of the following standing Committees:

- A. Membership, whose duties are to recommend to the Executive Committee programs to maintain and increase the membership of the Association, to provide member services and to continue approved existing programs.
- B. Nominating, whose duties are set forth in these Bylaws.

Section 2 - Special Committees

The President will establish such special committees, as are deemed necessary to conduct the affairs of the Association, and will appoint the members and Chairpersons thereof.

Section 3 - Reporting Requirements

At least once each year, every committee shall submit a written report to the President, with a copy to the Secretary, and shall report at such other times as requested by the President. Committees may also make reports or recommendations in person or in writing to the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting.

ARTICLE IX - FINANCE

Section 1 - Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Association shall be the calendar year.

Section 2 - Audit

The accounts of the Association shall have an annual compilation, review or audit by a Certified Public Accountant selected by the Executive Committee, who shall provide a report to the Association.

ARTICLE X – Parliamentary Authority

Roberts Rules of Order, Newly Revised, or any subsequent revision thereof, will govern the deliberations at all meetings of members, the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XI – DISSOLUTION

Section 1 – Distribution of Assets to another organization

The Association will use its funds only to accomplish the Purposes and Objectives specified in these Bylaws and no part of said funds will be distributed to the members of the Association. Upon dissolution of the Association and after the payment of all indebtedness of the Association, the remaining funds will be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational purposes. The Corporation must have the same Purpose and Objectives as this Association and must have established a tax exempt status under section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE XII - Revisions

These Bylaws may be revised by a two-thirds vote of the members entitled to vote, present at any Annual Meeting of the Association duly called and regularly held. A copy of the proposed Bylaw change(s) shall be submitted to the Secretary at least 30 days before the annual meeting and then forwarded to the President for placement on the website. Proposed revisions will be reviewed during the Annual Meeting and open for discussion and vote. Any Officer, Board member or Association member in good standing may submit a proposed revision for consideration. After the Bylaws have been approved they will be forwarded to the Webmaster and attached to the GOSC website.
